HOW TO DRAW COW and CHICKEN

FANCY YOURSELF AS AN ARTIST? WANT TO DRAW YOUR OWN PORTRAITS OF YOUR FAVOURITE TOONS? WELL, WITH THIS OH-SO-EASY GUIDE YOU CAN BE AN EXPERT IN DRAWING COW!

LOOK AT THAT! I DREW A PICTURE OF A COW, BIG BRUDDER!

CONSTRUCTION

1. Draw a grid 7 circles high with a centre line, as above. This way you can rough in cow's body, legs and head in simple lines, getting her proportions correct.
2. Now you can start drawing in the details. Her ears, nose, eyes arms and udders.
3. Again, using the grid for correct positioning, fill in her patches, horns and her nose whiskers. That's my sister!

The award winning show, Pinky and the Brain brings the tale of two white laboratory mice with an unhealthy fascination with conquering the world and their weird and wonderful sayings to your television screen. Check out these words of wisdom:

Brain: "Pinky, are you pondering what I'm pondering?"

Pinky: "I think so, Brain, but where will we find a duck and a hose at this hour?"

"I think so, Brain, but where are we going to find an open tattoo parlour at this time of night?"

"I think so, Brain, but if we didn't have ears we'd look like weasels."

"Uh, yeah Brain, but where are we going to find rubber pants our size?"

"I think so, Brain, but balancing a family and a career? It's all too much for me."

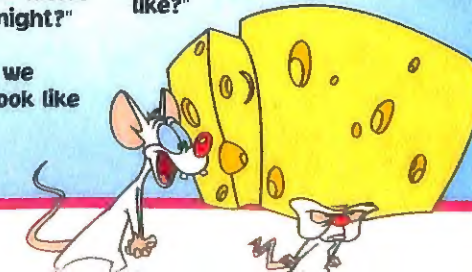

"Sure Brain, but where are we going to find chaps our size?"

"I think so, Brain, but we'll never get a monkey to use dental floss."

"I think so, Brain, but this time you wear the tutu."

"I think so, Brain, but culottes have a tendency to ride up."

"I think so, Brain, but me and Pippi Longstockings? I mean, what would the children look like?"

Special Effects!

★ THE DANCING RING

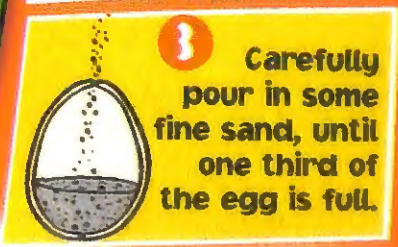

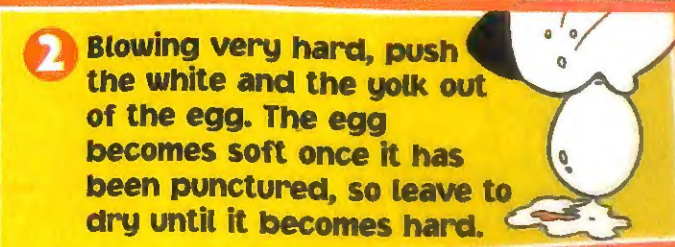

- 1 You will need a long hair, dark blonde if possible.
- 2 Tie a ring to the end of the hair and attach the other end to a wand, preferably of the magical variety.
- 3 Dangle the ring inside the glass by waving the magic wand from side to side in time to the music. The ring will appear to dance inside the glass!

Secret magic tip: This trick should not be performed in the day. At night, on the other hand, and with artificial light, it's almost impossible to discover the magical effect!

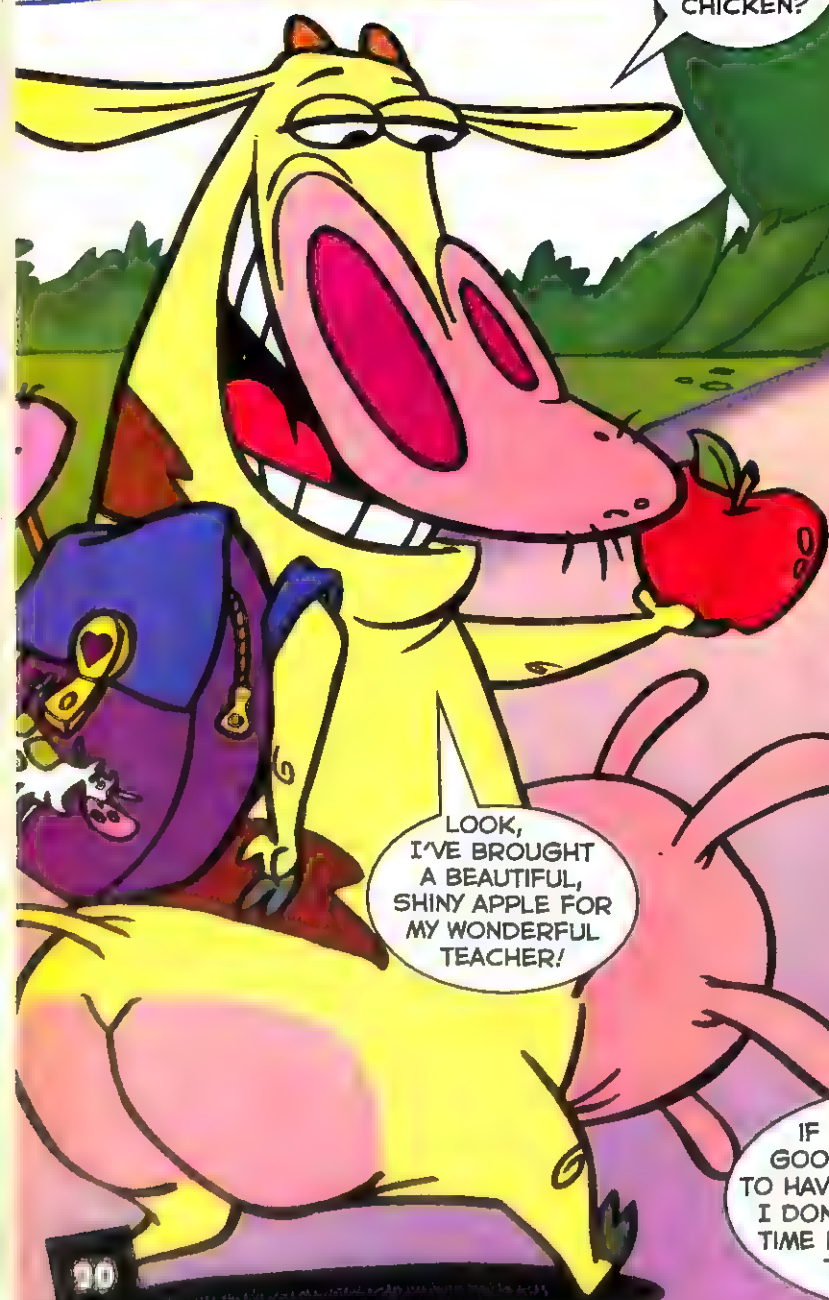

★ THE STANDING EGG

- 1 Take a fresh egg and with a needle, pierce a hole in both ends.
- 2 Blowing very hard, push the white and the yolk out of the egg. The egg becomes soft once it has been punctured, so leave to dry until it becomes hard.
- 3 Carefully pour in some fine sand, until one third of the egg is full.
- 4 Fill the holes with wax. Hey presto! A standing egg!

SOON THE HOLIDAYS WILL BE OVER AND IT'LL BE BACK TO SCHOOL FOR LESSONS. MOST PEOPLE ARE EXCITED ABOUT GOING BACK FOR ANOTHER YEAR, SEEING ALL THEIR FRIENDS AND DOING ALL THAT INTERESTING LEARNING STUFF. BUT CHICKEN ISN'T MOST PEOPLE. HE THINKS IT'S A WASTE OF TIME AND DOESN'T SEE THE POINT IN SITTING IN BORING LESSONS LEARNING ABOUT BORING STUFF. HE COULD BE OUTSIDE DOING...OTHER STUFF. BUT WHAT IF THIS YEAR STARTED DIFFERENTLY?

COW and CHICKEN BACK TO SKOOL!

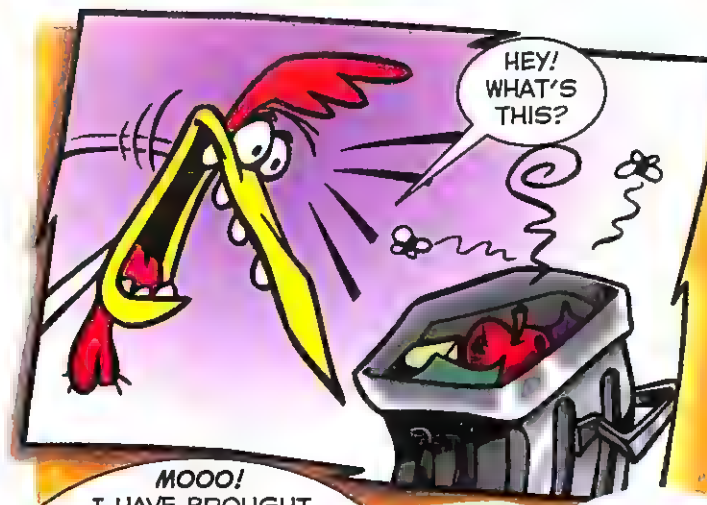

ISN'T IT A BEAUTIFUL DAY, CHICKEN?

WHY DO I HAVE TO COME BACK TO THIS PLACE FULL OF BORING BOOKS WITH NO TELEVISIONS? BAH!

LOOK, I'VE BROUGHT A BEAUTIFUL, SHINY APPLE FOR MY WONDERFUL TEACHER!

HUH! IF I HAVE TO HAVE GOOD GRADES I WANT TO HAVE THEM RIGHT NOW! I DON'T WANT TO SPEND TIME IN STUPID SCHOOL TO GET THEM!

HEY! WHAT'S THIS?

MOOO! I HAVE BROUGHT YOU THIS APPLE FOR YOU, TEACHER, SO THAT YOU DON'T GET HUNGRY DURING YOUR SELF-SACRIFICING WORK!

OH, COW! HOW VERY CONSIDERATE YOU ARE!

AAAAAGH! A MONSTER!

EXCUSE ME, MY WISE AND BEAUTIFUL LADY! I HATE TO BE SO SELFISH. IN ORDER TO REPAY MY GRATITUDE AND AFFECTION TO YOU, I WILL SACRIFICE MY LUNCH. ENJOY!

I'M OUTTA HERE! MOVIN' HOUSE AND FAST!

HA HA! HERE'S MY ANSWER! THIS IS JUST WHAT I NEED FOR ME TO BECOME TEACHER'S PET AND TOP OF THE CLASS!

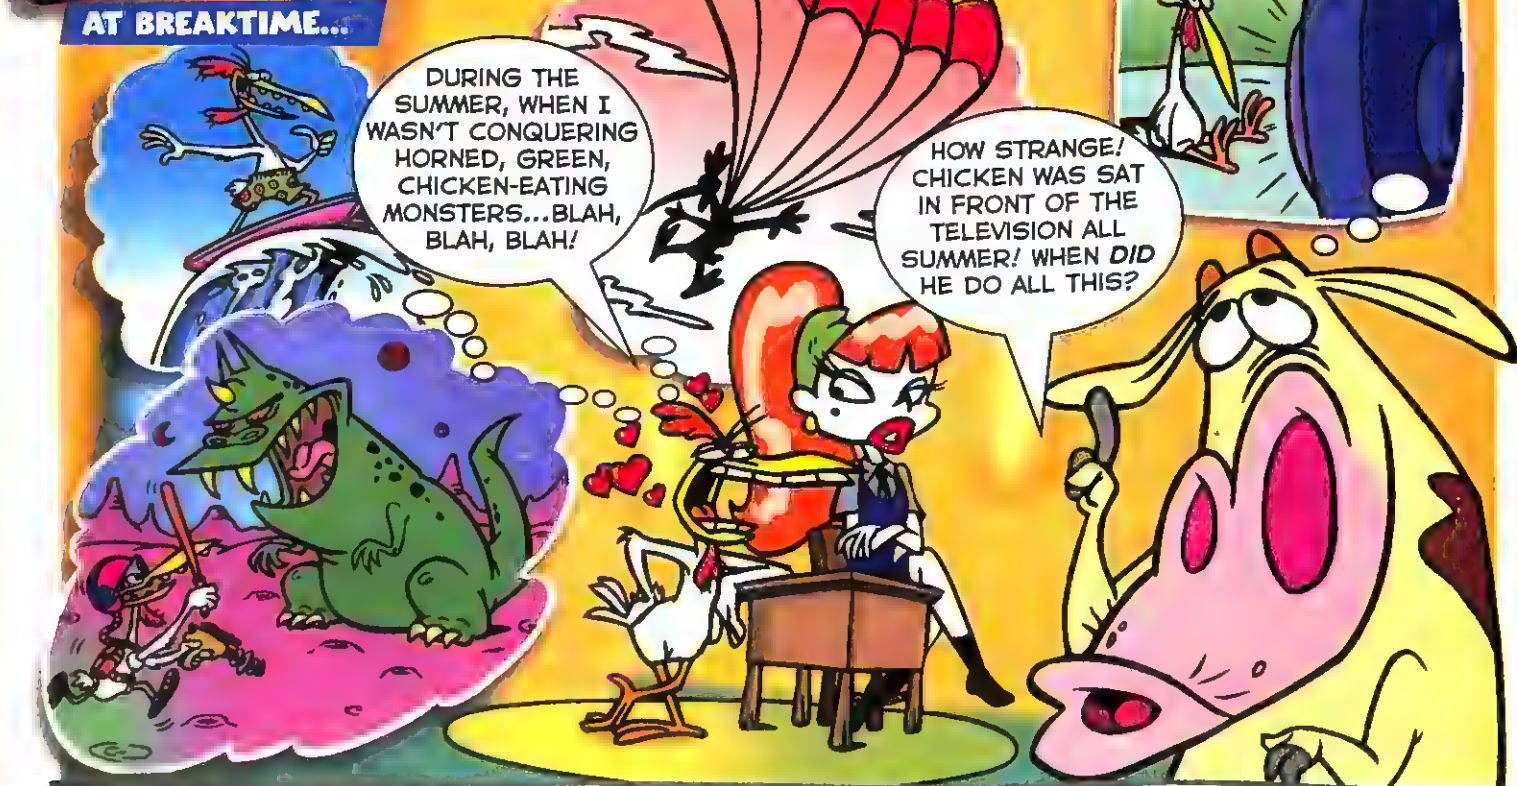

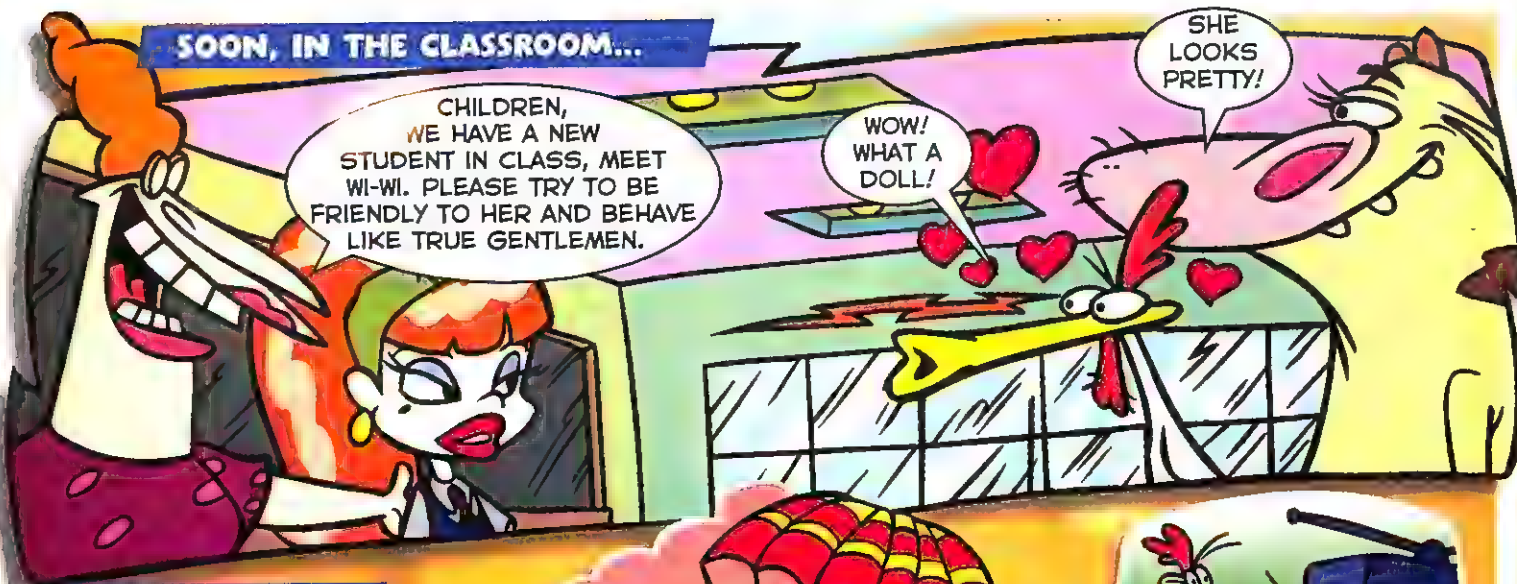

AAAAAGH! NO THANKS!

5 Tips for your First Day Back at School

1. DON'T DO IT ALONE

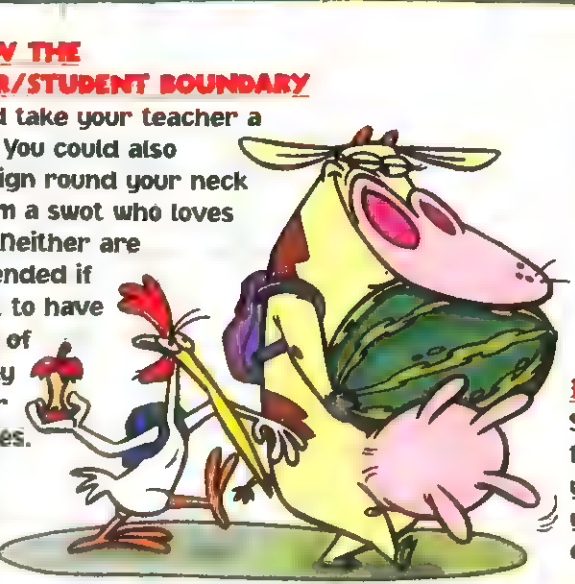

Travelling to school on your own is not the best idea. If you have the urge to run as far away from school as possible, the moment it comes into sight, you'll need someone to turn you around and march you into the school building. School is a great place to be, but you might need reminding of that sometimes. Like every day.

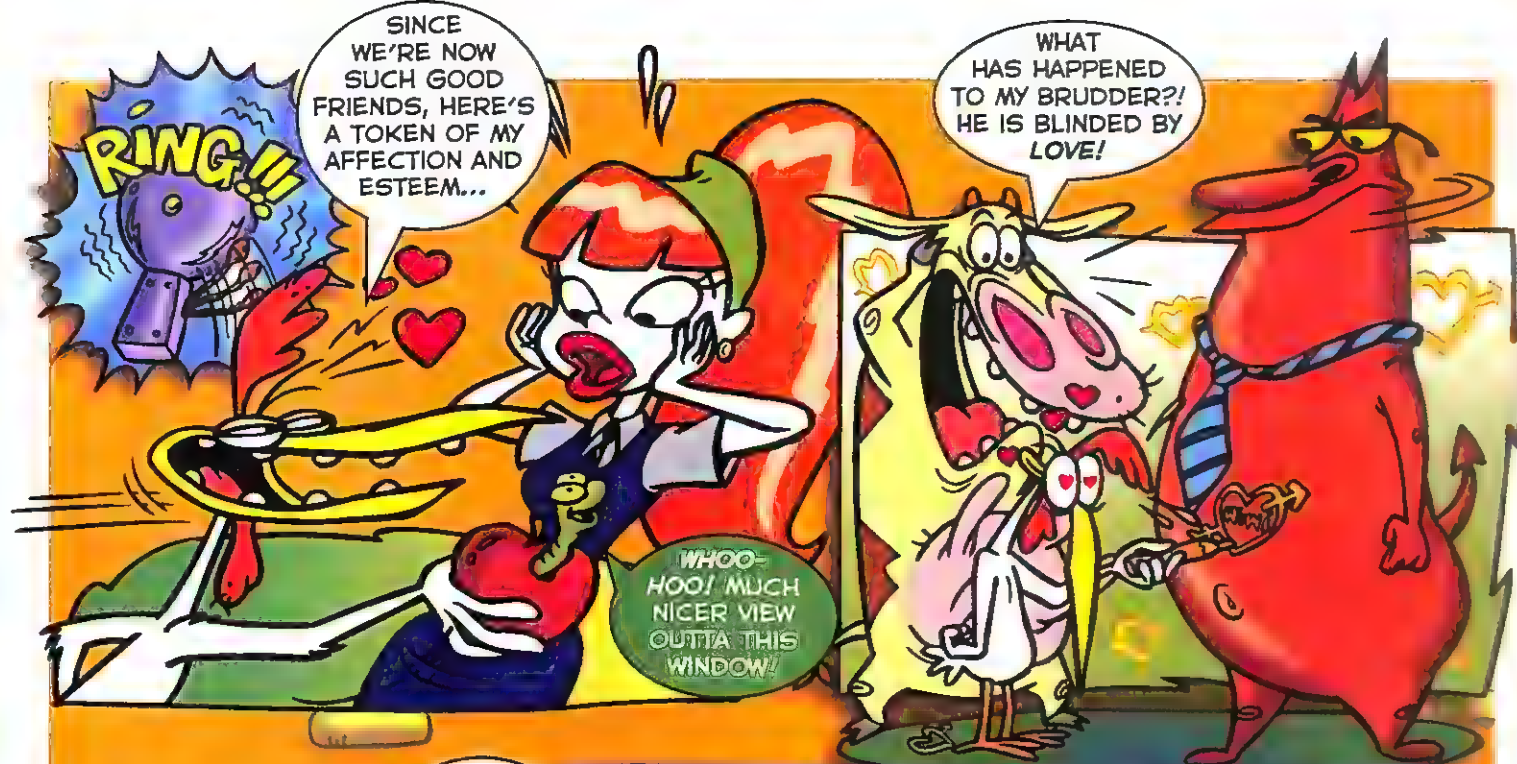

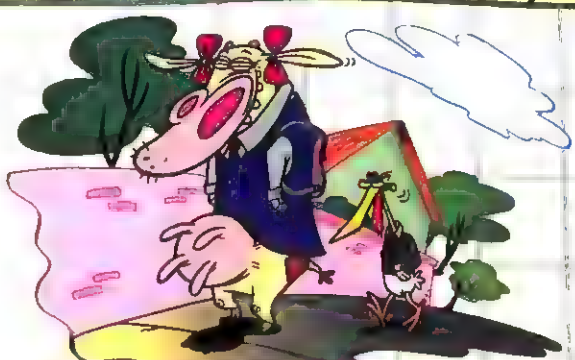

2. KNOW THE TEACHER/STUDENT BOUNDARY

You could take your teacher a present. You could also wear a sign round your neck saying I'm a swot who loves Teacher. Neither are recommended if you want to have any kind of credibility with your classmates.

3. LOOK NEAT FOR AT LEAST FIVE MINUTES

School uniforms can be a great thing. You don't have to think of what to wear in the morning. Whatever you wear, you can guarantee by the end of the day you'll look more like something your dog has chewed up and spat out!

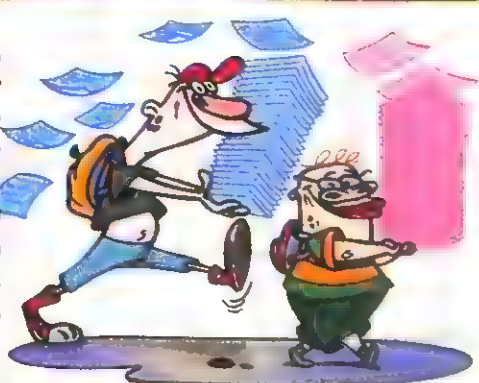

4. TAKE THE KITCHEN SINK TO SCHOOL

Remember to take all your books and bits and pieces to school. Trying to bluff your way through reading out loud some long-winded play written by a dead guy can be tricky when you don't have the words in front of you. Equally, you try working out a mega complicated big sum when you've no calculator and you've used up all of your own fingers and toes, as well as your neighbours. (Gross!)

5. HAVE YOUR HOLIDAY STORY SORTED

Your teacher will probably ask you to write about what you did in the holidays. It's tempting to make up tales of wild animals, brave rescues and near death experiences. But, there's a chance of being rumbled at Parents' Evening, when your teacher asks how they're feeling after being kidnapped and nearly eaten alive by aliens in Outer Mongolia.

MOOOOVE IT!

CELESTIAL CROCKERY

If you've seen strange bright lights in the night sky you may have spotted a UFO (Unidentified Flying Object). No-one knows what they really are, but many people believe they are evidence of life from another planet. The first UFOs were spotted in the early 1950s and were called 'flying saucers' because of their distinctive shape. Over the years there have been many hoaxes concerning UFOs. One case kept the American airforce baffled for decades before it was discovered that the UFO wasn't an alien craft but a frisbee thrown in front of a camera.

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS

It's hard to believe, but many people say they have actually met alien visitors. From these encounters it seems that the aliens are peace-loving creatures who are keeping a watchful eye on our planet. According to the aliens it would be a catastrophe of galactic proportions if the human race were to leave Earth before we were ready. Just think of the traffic problems for a start!

The next night...

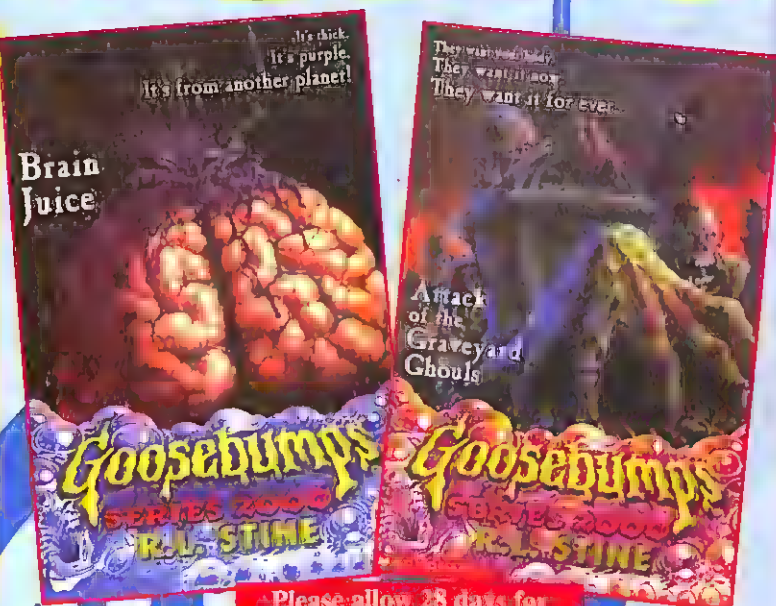

ALONE IN THE UNIVERSE?

For every scientist that believes in extraterrestrial life there is another who totally dismisses the idea. "Where is the evidence?" they ask. For nearly fifty years we have been broadcasting messages into space and no-one has replied! Much closer to home, a recent robotic survey of the Martian landscape was inconclusive. A manned flight is now being planned in order to finally discover whether or not microscopic organisms live beneath the planet's frozen surface.

G: Yes, is it Galileo? Newton, Hawking or maybe...Einstein?

D: Um, Einstein?
